WINEMAKING

Guido Natalino owns and operates one of the oldest estates near the village of Gavi. The Natalino family took over La Soraia in the first half of the 20th century, and it has been known as Ca' Luna ever since. Guido's specialty is low-intervention old-vine Cortese grown at 1650 feet in limestone soils free of pesticides and herbicides. Guido ferments his Cortese in steel to highlight qualities of minerals and bright acidic fruit.

TASTING NOTES

Medium-bodied, elegantly dry. Straw yellow color with copper glints. Fresh and floral with notes of white Rainer cherry, mineral and citrus. Featuring a hint of floral, herbaceous flavor on the finish.
